

Bringin the noise for youth.

music by young Hibiki Tokiwa and Tapes.

A1	Stop the clock	02:50
B1	Nowhere Man	02:46
B2	Baby It's You	02:12

That was about 1980. A song recorded with a cheap electric guitar and an old cassette recorder. It is a record that a boy tried to express the Japanese band JACCKS and The Beatles. The embarrassing reality of early urges and adolescence makes me smile.

This record is made using one record cutting machine that Hibiki Tokiwa himself created as an appendix to the magazine "Otona no Kagaku". Thanks to many famous and unknown record creators, musicians and artists.
